

<< Letter #3: from Mission to the World >>

September 9, 2014

Dear Friend and Supporter of Josh and Emily Kines,

Warmest greetings in the wonderful name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

This simple letter is to communicate a transition on the horizon regarding a change of call for our friends Josh and Emily. As you have most likely seen in their communications, after much prayer and counsel, the Kines have made the decision to transition from their work from MTW in order to return to church planting in the U.S. Josh, Emily and their family will be missed, but we do, from the heart, commend them to their new labors with prayer and thanksgiving for God's leading in their lives.

I would like to take this opportunity to encourage you to pray with and for the Kines family as they make the transition from Peru back to the United States over these coming months. Josh and Emily will remain on salary and benefits with MTW through January 31, 2015. As you are able, we would ask you to continue your financial support to them via MTW through that time.

Should you have any other questions for the MTW office or for me personally regarding the transition please contact me directly at bill.yarbrough@mtw.org. Or, you can contact Mandy Massingill at the Atlanta office (mandy.massingill@mtw.org). We are both standing by to help in any and every way possible.

From all of us at Mission to the World, thank you ever so much for your generous support of the Kines while they served in our missional family. May God bless you richly.

In Christ alone,

Bill Yarbrough
International Director,
Latin America & Sub Saharan Africa